Wireless Internet for 2017

Free wireless internet (wifi) for our delegates at parts of the Hyatt and CTCC Convention buildings is our vision for 2017. Stay tuned to find out if we are elated or not with the possibilities and realities.

Convention Bands (Musical Groups)

This year, there will not be musical groups performing in the three venues slotted for our Thursday feature speakers.

Hotel Rooms for PDTCA Board Members

As part of being on the convention board AND because your attendance at the Honorary President's Reception is something you are expected to be at, you are entitled to one free hotel room night at the Fairmont Palliser or Hyatt Regency Hotel on the Wednesday night of convention (Feb. 22, 2017) with your room/tax/parking covered by PDTCA for the one night. If you wish to self pay for night(s) beyond, that is fine, I just need to know on the attached form which will circulate. If you wish to room with another PDTCA board member, then you can have your Wednesday night and your Thursday night covered by the board for room/tax for both nights, and parking for the first night. This is the meeting where you will decide your intentions for the hotel night. There will be a form circulating where you will find your name (hopefully) and then indicate your preferred check in and check out and then who is paying for what. Also if you have special requests such as 'King bed', '2 Queen beds' 'near an elevator', 'lowest floor possible', smoking floor (not an option), or 'beside Yvonne Toney' please indicate it. Generally we book all board members into the Hyatt, unless you indicate otherwise or we have late additions to the board, or our fill numbers are completely lopsided at the two hotels and we need to adjust for contractual obligations.
